

August 20, 2024 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“American Lamb is on the menu at Idaho’s Trailing of the Sheep Festival”

The best in American Lamb will be featured at various culinary events during the annual Trailing of the Sheep Festival, October 2-6, 2024, in the picturesque Wood River Valley of Idaho. Foodies will delight in the many special culinary lamb events, including the For the Love of Lamb Dine-Around, Cooking with Lamb Classes, Farm to Table Dinners featuring Idaho lamb, Lamb Fest at the Folklife Fair, Basque breakfast and lunch options at the National Qualifying Sheepdog Trials and lamb lunch at the Happy Trails Closing Party. These culinary events are a part of the internationally recognized Festival, which provides attendees the opportunity to experience a unique extended weekend of history and culture and a literal ‘taste’ of the American West.

Celebrating its 28th anniversary year, the Trailing of the Sheep Festival honors the 150+ year tradition of moving sheep (‘trailing’) from high mountain summer pastures down through the Valley to traditional winter grazing and lambing areas in the south. This annual migration is living history and the focus of a unique and authentic Festival that celebrates the people, arts, cultures, and traditions of sheep ranching in Idaho and the West. The five-day Festival includes nonstop activities in multiple venues - history, folk, and traditional arts, a Sheep Folklife Fair, lamb culinary offerings, a Wool Fest with classes and workshops, music, dance, storytelling, the National Qualifying Sheepdog Trials and, the always entertaining, Big Sheep Parade with 1,500 sheep hoofing it down Main Street in Ketchum.

2024 LAMB CULINARY EVENTS

- Cooking with Lamb Classes will feature great culinary techniques from six expert local Idaho chefs. Learn from the best how to prepare creative lamb dishes. Wine and sides will be paired with each class dish for an extra special delight. Classes include Marcona Almond Encrusted Lamb Rack, Lamb Cornish Pastry, Fasah - Yemeni Lamb Stew, and Japanese Lamb Curry. There is also a class on Cheese Making using cow’s and sheep’s milk.
- Farm to Table Lamb Dinners on October 1, 2 and 3 at Mountain Humane near Hailey will be prepared by local Chef Al McCord. The four-course dinners will feature local Idaho lamb from Darby Northcott’s 3/D Ranch on Tuesday, from Kathleen and Brian Bean’s Lava Lake Ranch on Wednesday and the Peavey's Flat Top Ranch on Thursday. As much of the plate as possible is locally sourced and the ranchers and farmers will attend the dinners to discuss their products. Seating is limited, and tickets sell fast. These are unique opportunities to get to know Idaho through its ranchers and food growers and experience the incredible talents of a local chef.

- For the Love of Lamb Dine-Around will take place in association with eleven top local restaurants and chefs in Ketchum on Friday, October 4. A variety of creative and tasty American Lamb ‘baaa-ites’ will be offered starting at 4:30 pm and will end when all the bites are gone (usually within an hour!) A $25.00 “passport,” which can be purchased in advance online, gets you at least five bites. This fun evening out on the town is a popular Festival favorite.
- A Lamb Fest will take place on Saturday, October 5 during the Sheep Folklife Fair. Enjoy delicious and creative American Lamb dishes prepared by six Idaho chefs and restaurants. Beverages are also available for purchase. Choose your favorite restaurant when you arrive at the Fair and purchase tickets on-site.
- The Happy Trails Festival Closing Party will be held on Sunday, October 6, at the Ketchum Town Square. It is the perfect spot to gather from 10:00 am – 3:00 pm to enjoy delicious lamb prepared and served by Al’s Sustainability Center with live music by Gary and Cindy Braun and the Kim Stocking Band.
